Membership Privilege Policy

The EFSC Board of Directors may withdraw or deny Membership privileges at any time the board determines that a prospective member's conduct may be contrary to the best interests of the club, the sport and those who participate in it.

If at any time, any question arises concerning a membership candidate's ability or desire to further the interests of the Club, a majority vote of the Board of Directors shall accept or reject the candidate's application.

A rejected candidate shall be notified in writing within ten days of the Board meeting and vote and receive a full return of fees paid. Six (6) Months after notice of rejection, candidates may reapply for membership.

Further, at any time, EFSC may rescind or revoke a club members' membership privileges if the board of directors finds the club member's actions or behavior contrary to the best interests of the club, the sport and those who participate in it. In the case of a minor club member, the actions of the minor club member's parent or guardian may also lead to rescission or revocation of the minor club member's membership.

If the Board of Directors believes that the club member's actions or behaviors are contrary to the best interests of the club, the sport and the skaters who participate in it, the Board shall notify the member in writing. If the club member is a minor, or the actions or behaviors leading to board action are those of a minor club member's parent or guardian. Written notice shall be sent to the address on file with the Club and USFS. Notice concerning a minor club member or parent of minor club member shall be sent to a parent or guardian's address on file with EFSC. If the only address is an email address, that address and email shall be the form of communication.

The board shall give the member, and the parent or guardian if applicable, the opportunity for a hearing within ten (10) days of receipt of the complaint in accordance with the EFSC Club Constitution and By-Laws. This agreement is in addition to, and not in place of, any provision of EFSC's Conflict Resolution Policy.

By submitting an application for Club Membership, all potential club members, and parents or guardians or minor members, agree to the terms and conditions of this policy.
